FREIGHT EMBARGOES LIFTED ON NEARLY ALL EASTERN POINTS

Freight Acceptable for New York, But Not for New England Points

EXPORT TRADE PROHIBITED

Nothing Accepted for Abroad—Express Companies Have Experienced Great Runs—Large Glass Shipment Made This Week.

Freight is now being accepted on points in the east where for weeks embargoes were in effect, and only on the New York, New Haven and Hartford road is there an uncertainty. Only export freight is being refused until the congestion is completely relieved.

Most of the embargoes were lifted the first part of this week and New York and Philadelphia shipments were declared entirely acceptable, save for export trade. It is anticipated that over the New York, New Haven and Hartford lines freight may be shipped shortly. Until that time considerable difficulty will be experienced by western shippers in the vicinity of Pittsburgh to reach New England points.

While the embargo on freight last week express companies had a great run of business. Only this week there was an immense shipment of glassware from the plant of the Macbeth-Evans Glass company sent by Adams Express to Boston. This appeared to be the only way the demand in the New England states could be supplied. Probably with the embargoes lifted there will be a let-up in the rush of express traffic. It is too costly and no more satisfactory results in the long run are obtained.

ATHENE MID-WINTER MEETING BIG AFFAIR

Prof. George Follows of Carnegie Technical Schools Addresses Local Club—Many Delegates Present From Out of Town Points

With Mrs. Edwin McKay entertaining at her home on Washington avenue, the mid-winter meeting of the Athene club was held Friday afternoon, it proving one of the most interesting meetings of the entire season.

As one of the chief features, Prof. George Follows of the Carnegie Institute of Technology of Pittsburgh made an address on "The Science of Everyday Efficiency." He took up the theme of time-saving, telling how to prevent a waste of time and relating how much greater efficiency there was without the waste.

Delegates were in attendance from different women's clubs in California, Monessen, Monongahela and Donora, and the total number present was 60. Music was furnished by Miss Gwen Treasure, who played two violin solos and Miss Elizabeth Frew who sang. Miss Bertha Haines was the accompanist for both.

The McKay home was handsomely decorated for the occasion with spring flowers. The next meeting of the Athene club will be held on February 25 when Mrs. J. Clive Enos will entertain.

BINNS LEAVES DONORA TO TAKE UP NEW WORK

Well Known Banker to be Engaged In Business With the Pittsburg Coal Products Company With Offices at Monaca.

James G. Binns, who for the past six months has been in charge of the office of the Donora Construction company has tendered his resignation to that concern to become identified with the building and operation of the plant of the Pittsburg Coal Products Co., the charter of which was granted under the laws of Pennsylvania, a few weeks ago. Mr. Binns left for Monaca, Pa., Monday, where the new plant is located.

The Pittsburg Products company will manufacture dye and acids products, entering the markets which were supplied with products of foreign manufacturers, until the European war shut off to a great extent the importation of foreign dyes and created an unprecedented demand for American goods to take their place. The new concern has strong financial backing and among the incorporators are men of ability well known locally. John W. Ailes of Pittsburg is president.

Mr. Binns has been a resident of Donora for a number of years and identified with leading business interests. He was at one time assistant cashier of the First National bank and later secretary-treasurer of the Union Trust Co. He helped organize and was cashier for several years of the Citizens bank at Fayette City. Mr. Binns has many friends in Donora who will be sorry to see him leave in case he decides to make Monaca his future permanent residence.

"CUT OUT CHICKEN CHASING"—EICHEN

District Attorney of Westmoreland County Arraigns Youths of Pricedale for Their Alleged Misconduct.

Singing under the scorching arraignments of District Attorney Ward Eichen of Westmoreland county, who told them "chicken chasing" must cease, several young bloods of Pricedale, a mining village adjoining Belle Vernon, have returned home and are doing their utmost to repair shattered reputations.

District Attorney Eichen reached his conclusion that "chicken chasing" as he termed it, was quite a favorite pastime in the mining village when he named the searchlight of investigation into the alleged misconduct of Arthur Turner, a youth of Pricedale. This young man was accused of a serious crime by R. M. Andrews on behalf of his daughter, Verdie a school girl 15 years of age. At Greensburg the jury returned a verdict of guilty, but he escaped with a $1 fine, the costs of prosecution and a small payment to the wronged girl. He refused to pay and will spend three months in jail. Several witnesses were summoned before the District Attorney partly lost control of himself and scathingly arraigned the Pricedale system.

Judge McConnell refused to hear certain women whom he bitterly termed village gossips. He remarked that Pricedale would be better if this gossiping should be forever eliminated.

WIDELY KNOWN BENTLEYVILLE PHYSICIAN PNEUMONIA VICTIM

FIRST WEEK'S SERVICES
AT LOCAL CHURCH CLOSE

The first week of the evangelistic services now going on in the First Presbyterian church closed Friday night with a soul stirring challenge to Christians by Rev. L. G. Noble under the title, "Lifting and Drawing." An unusually interesting song service was conducted. Rev. A. J. Whipkey offered prayer. Mrs. I. T. Daniel and W. C. Clark sang, "Oh Love That Will Not Let Me Go" with fine expression. The evangelists text was "And I, if I be lifted up from the earth will draw all men unto myself." He said the church was a great labor organization and that Jesus Christ was the greatest business man on earth. Rev. Noble said the ways in which Christ could be lifted up were by confessing him before men, by living the prayer life, by conducting a useful business in an honest way and by helping to extend the Kingdom.

Themes next week will be the different phases of the plan of salvation through Christ.

The Abnormal Mind.

Human nature is often a queer thing. In some the imagination becomes the dominant factor, says the Altoona Tribune. So long as it is healthful and cheerful everything is all right. The moment it becomes diseased the man whom it dominates loses his self-poise and begins to live in an unreal and unpleasant world. Not every victim of hallucination is locked up in a lunatic asylum. Some who are incarcerated seem perfectly sane, save at irregular intervals. They are capable of deceiving everybody except the asylum physicians and attendants and even they are taken in sometimes. Neither sanity nor lunacy is easily detected when casually encountered within the walls of an institution. Sometimes it is comparatively easy to mistake a patient for an attendant and vice versa.

Some folks who are quite sane upon all ordinary topics have one weakness which separates them from their normal neighbors. Take the person who is forever experimenting with patent medicines of one sort or another for the relief of imaginary ills. Every new specific for certain diseases appeals to him and as he reads the advertisement on the bottle or its wrapper he speedily acquires two or three of the most deadly and begin to buy the remedy. One peculiarity of this sort of lunacy is that it never sticks to one remedy for very long. After a few doses today's medicine is displaced by a newer preparation which is said to be superior to anything else on the market and which must be bought and tried. The patent medicine impostors thrive and grow rich upon this sort of lunacy.

Others are victims of all sorts of strange delusions and superstitions. They tell you that they are not superstitious, yet feel that it is always best to be on the safe side. Some are in deadly terror of cats; cannot abide the presence of puss; have heard all sorts of weird tales about her. And yet the world never contained a more peaceful animal under proper and intelligent treatment. When this writer was a boy all the gardens of his native town were planted according to certain propitious signs. The moon was a potent factor in this business. The "increase" of the moon for some things, the decrease for others. Of course we are not intimating that the adherents of domestic astrology were insane; they were merely deceived by ignorance. All sorts of queer notions dominated the minds of the pioneer gardeners, especially the women.

There was once an estimable gentleman whose friends were obliged to send him to Harrisburg because he was a complete lunatic on one vital point. He imagined he was a bottle and kept his friends and himself in a perpetual uproar through fear that in some way their carelessness would break him. It was a pathetic thing that a person who discoursed with the utmost wisdom and composure upon almost every topic of living interest should have such a queer and terror-breeding hallucination. For some weeks a gentleman who was entirely sane was a delightful companion so long as one engaged him in conversation but the moment one's back was turned he began to pray in the most agonizing way, uttering groans and supplications that fairly froze the blood of the hearer.

A sane mind in a healthy body is a gift devoutly to be wished for by all. Those who are thus blessed and who are swayed by no idiosyncracies or dominating follies have great reason to be grateful to their ancestors and through them to the Creator of all things. And also they should strive to exercise abundant patience toward those who, less fortunate than they are given over to vagueness of mind and to practices and prepossessions that discover to the close observer some of the points in which they are far from having reached perfection.

rather than a good old-fashioned Republican Protective Tariff is a problem for the Psychologist, says an exchange. To annoy, vex, inconvenience and exasperate the people with all manner of direct taxation is not a mistake. It is a blunder. After the blunder find an increasing, menacing deficit should certainly teach a lesson to anyone not prevented by partisanship from learning.

This "new freedom" is found to be anything but "freedom" new or old. Under Republican management whatever our citizens paid for government support was collected in the least irksome manner and thousands never knew it cost them a cent. Also the foreigner, who sought our markets in competition with our producers and laborers, had to pay a good share of the government expense.

Under the "new freedom" plan the foreigner pays nothing and our own people are held up at every turn for contributions to the public treasury. The "new freedom" was to lower the cost of living, but everyone knows it has not done so, and we are all licking stamps instead. This is a handicap of the present administration which promises to make it impossible for it to survive an election.

Bowling along at a rate of about 40 miles an hour, an automobile on the Monongahela thoroughfare near Baird Station, swerved and skidded into a telephone pole. Three occupants were thrown in three different directions and one was picked up sadly in need of repairs. The new car, this being its test run, from the experience was so badly battered it finished up looking like a cattered between a kindling pile and the junk heap of a machine plant. Obviously the test was eminently successful. It was too successful for any good. The machine was found in perfect condition and ran like greased lightning, but these features were offset by the condition of things after it came to a stop. The question quite naturally arises as to which is preferable, speed, a broken machine and a broken head, or little speed, a good machine and perfect health.

A man of achievements was the late George A. Macbeth. Ingenious and energetic, with an ambition to continually improve upon his latest efforts, he became a foremost glass manufacturer of America. Macbeth ware is a standard. The development of the immense concern which bears his name was due largely to the resourcefulness and conservative business methods of Mr. Macbeth. He was a man of foresight, a man who knew his business and knew it thoroughly. He is a man who will be missed.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

Better be prepared than sorry. An ounce of preparedness is worth a pound of muddling through. Never count your dreadnaughts before they are built. Eternal preparedness is the price of liberty. Pacifists who live in unfortified cities shouldn't stir up dissension. There is no use passing a preparedness appropriation after the country has been invaded. It's a wise country that knows its own defenselessness. Never put off till tomorrow the preparedness we should be making today—Life.

Johnny stood beside his mother as she made her selection from the huckster's wagon, and the farmer told the boy to take a handful of cherries, but the child shook his head.

"What's the matter? Don't you like them?" asked the huckster.

"Yes," replied Johnny.

"Then go ahead and take some," Johnny hesitated, whereupon the farmer put a generous handful in the boy's cap. After the farmer had driven on, the mother asked:

"Why didn't you take the cherries when he told you to?"

"Cause his hand was bigger'n mine,"—Christian Register.

There is a Heap of Solace in Being Able to Depend Upon a Well-Earned Reputation.

For months Charleroi readers have seen the constant expression of praise for Doan's Kidney Pills, and read about the good work they have done in this locality. What other remedy ever produced such convincing proof of merit?

Mrs. Louis Velletay, 205 Prospect avenue, Charleroi, says: "I had been troubled for years with dropsical swellings in my feet and ankles and I found it hard to get around. I also had a dull, heavy pain the small of my back and I couldn't do my housework. I seemed to be worse in the morning and I often got so sore that I couldn't bend. Rheumatic pains darted throughout my body and I felt tired all the time. I doctored, but got no relief and when I was advised to try Doan's Kidney Pills, I procured a supply at Piper Bros' Drug Store. Two boxes relieved me. I now take Doan's Kidney Pills off and on when I am not feeling well and they never fail to help me."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Velletay had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

"HOUSE BASED UPON WOMAN"

"A house is not based upon the ground, but upon woman," is an old Montenegro proverb. To her falls the hard work of the household. They use the sickle tend the flocks, as well as the spinning wheel and have the vitality and health to enjoy it.

American women should take more care to preserve health and vitality by avoiding nervous, run-down conditions and for this purpose our local druggists, Pipers Drug Store have a most valuable combination of the three oldest tonics known in Vinol. If you are weak, run-down, over-worked just try it.

Men cannot understand women's sufferings. What we women know from experience, we know better than any man. I will tell you how to cure yourself at home at a cost of about 10 cents a week.
I suffered from a peculiar ailment causing pain in the head, back, or bowel, feeling of weight and dragging-down sensation, fainting or displacement of pelvic organs, causing dizziness and bladder weakness or constipation and piles, painful or irregular periods, catarrhal conditions and discharges, extreme nervousness, depressed spirits, melancholy, desire to cry, hot flashes, weariness, sallow complexion with dark circles under the eyes, pain in the left breast, or a general feeling that life is not worth living.

I INVITE YOU TO SEND TODAY FOR MY FREE TEN DAYS' TREATMENT

and learn how these ailments can be easily and surely conquered at home without the dangers and expense of an operation. When you are cured, and able to enjoy life again, you can pass the good word along to some other sufferer. My home treatment is for young or old. To Mothers of Daughters, I will explain how to overcome green sickness (chlorosis), irregularities, headaches, and lassitude in young women and restore them to plumpness and health. Tell me if you are worried about your daughters. Remember, it costs you nothing to give my home treatment a ten days' trial, and does not interfere with daily work. If health is worth asking for, then accept my generous offer and write for the free treatment, including my illustrated booklet, "Woman's Own Medical Adviser." I will send all in plain wrappers, post-paid. To save time, you can cut out this offer, mark your feelings, and return to me. Send today, as you may not see this offer again. Address,

CHARLEROI HIGH FIVE BEATS CARNEGIE TECH

Industrial Team From Pittsburgh Institution Falls Easy Prey to Ability Of Locals—Close Guarding is One Feature.

By Ernest Dorbritz

The Charleroi high school quintet had little difficulty in handling the strong Carnegie Tech industrial five in a bitter defeat Friday night at the high school gymnasium. The score was 31 to 19. The game was fast but the local five excelled from beginning. Both teams experienced something of the element of hard luck in their shooting.

In the first half the Tech boys were held to one field goal and the score was 19 to 9 at the end of the first half. In the second half the local boys let up a little on their speed caging fewer goals and fewer fouls. The game throughout was characterized by roughness, making the work of the officials rough. Referee Wagner handled affairs well.

The guarding of Miksch and Stahlman was a feature. Fiedler led in the scoring in the first half and tallied 10 to 25 fouls. During the entire struggle Lowstuter tallied four goals. Ryland had four to his credit in spite of the fact that his man was much the larger. Riva, Eagye and Dickson were substituted during the last few minutes of play and held their own during that brief period.

Marshall, last fall's quarterback on the Carnegie Tech varsity led his team, tallying 11 points.

A large crowd attended and much enthusiasm was shown.

This afternoon the high school girls' team are at West Newton to play the West Newton high school girls' five. Next Friday the University of Pittsburgh freshmen will play here. Lineup:

Char. High—31	Car. Tech. Ind.—19
Lowstuter	F	Smith
Fiedler	F	Marshall
Ryland	C	Craig
Miksch	G	Black
Stahlman	G	Sachs

Substitutions—Riva for Fiedler, Eagye for Riva, Dickson for Stahlman, Esbenschad for Black. Field goals—Lowstuter 4, Fiedler 3, Ryland 3, Marshall, Black, Esbenschad, Sachs. Fouls—Fiedler 11 of 25, Riva 1 of 4, Marshall 11 of 21. Referee—Wagner.

NO LACK OF HONEST BOYS

Los Angeles Lad Held Up as a Wonder Is One of Many That the Land May Claim.

A Los Angeles (Cal.) paper prints the account of the return to the owner of a five-dollar piece paid by accident to a newsboy. It seems to regard the incident as remarkable, and one phase of it was, but the paper overlooked this. There are many honest boys. The instincts of youth are predatory only in a mischievous fashion. In a real test, the average boy would come out with colors flying. The industrious lad who would steal is an exception. No normal boy accustomed to dealing in pennies could see an accidental gold coin in his day's collection without the immediate impulse to place it in the hands of the owner.

The remarkable phase of the incident was that the owner, upon receiving his coin, rewarded the boy with 50 cents. Doubtless the newsie felt more jubilation in possession of this honest piece of silver than in the larger piece that could have been retained only by a process virtually pilfering. Ordinarily the person who loves money and recovers it is remarkably stingy in the matter of reward. A nickel handed over in exchange for a fat purse rescued from the street is about the rule. Sometimes there is no proffer, but a look of dark suspicion.

It would be wise to have a statutory regulation of the whole matter. A reward of ten per cent would not be out of reason. If a poor person happens upon a vagrant roll of money, it is but natural that he become conscious of temptation. He has reason to think the owner will pay little or nothing and be more apt to display toward him a sort of resentment than gratitude. If he knew that under the law he was entitled to a fair commission, the temptation would vanish, the finder be satisfied, and the owner restrained from assuming the too frequent role of miser.

RATTLER IS MUCH MALIGNED

Hated Reptile Not Nearly So Black as He Has Been Painted by Those Who Do Not Like Him.

Rare, indeed, are wild creatures of this continent which are capable of causing the fear and respect that the rattlesnake causes.

A big part of the fear is unfounded. He's dangerous, but there's no use of being frightened at him. In the first place, he usually gives you an unmistakable warning, a little buzzing hiss which he makes with his tail.

He gives his warning with a set of shell-like rattles on the end of his tail, by which he is most easily distinguished from other snakes. It used to be a common belief that the snake added a rattle each year and that you could tell his age by the number of rattles. Now it is known that sometimes he will grow three rattles in a year and that old snakes sometimes lose a rattle or two.

His color varies from yellowish brown to dark brown. The snake is darkest just before he sheds his skin which may be two or three times a year. When he makes an attack he doesn't "leap through the air," and he cannot strike farther than his own length, usually not that far. Since the common rattlesnake rarely grows beyond five feet in length, you see his range is limited.

Nor is he so hungry for human flesh as most persons would imagine. He's very well satisfied with his diet of mice, rats—yes, and sometimes a squirrel or a rabbit. He eats enough mice and rats every year to make him the farmer's friend instead of a hated enemy.

PITTSBURGH COAL CO. TO BUILD POWER PLANT

The Pittsburgh Coal company Thursday signed a lease with W. H. Wickerham of Carroll township for the use of an acre of land situated across from the entrance to Eldora park. On this lease the coal company will erect a large power plant for use of the Black Diamond mine. The leasing of this property and the proposed erection of this plant gives color to the report that the coal company expects to erect a steel river and rail tippie at Black Diamond to take the place of the present structure, which was erected as a temporary expedient after the fire about three years ago. Engineers spent about five days at the Diamond some two weeks ago, getting measurements and the reports at that time were that the coal company would make permanent improvements there.
